Terms and conditions

1. Preliminary enrolment period: 1st of August to 31st of August 2018
2. Eligibility: Hold a New Zealand passport or permanent residency visa and must have a local professional teacher or training school recommendation. Overseas students who want to enrol for the competition, must have been recommended by a teacher or school in New Zealand, and have lived in New Zealand for more than half a year this year. Furthermore, each teacher or school is limited to one participant for this competition. The organiser reserves the right for the final recommendation.

3. Age of participant: 6 to 10 years old (Age as at 27th Oct. 2018)
4. First competition requirement: All applicants are to provide a video that is less than 5 minutes uploaded to YouTube. The Video Link, Application Form and a digital copy of participant's NZ passport or visa are to be sent to our organisation's email address pccyoung@gmail.com (please indicate the participant's full name in the piano competition)
5. The final contest will be held from 2pm on 15th of September at the Metropolis Event Centre on 116 Symonds Street, Auckland Central.
6. Final Contest: Top 20 children selected from the preliminary competition will enter the finals on 15th of September. Judges will select the Champion, Runner-up, Third place, and additional 3 winners. The total six final winners will receive the prize from the world famous piano master, Richard Clayderman. In addition, these final 6 winners will perform with Richard Clayderman on stage together on 27th of October. Either the instructor or school of the six award-winning children will also receive a certificate of appreciation from the piano master. (More details will be announced by the organizer in due course)
7. Enquiries: Secia on 020-40106333 or Calvin on 021-2398336
